Singapore Wins the Bid for FDI 2009,
One of the World’s Largest Dental Congresses

Mega MICE event expected to attract more than 13,000 dentists and dental professionals from all over the world to meet in Singapore in 2009.

Singapore—9 March 2007—In another mega event achievement for the dynamic Singapore MICE industry, the Singapore Dental Association (SDA) announced formally today that Singapore has secured the bid for the FDI Annual World Dental Congress, to be held in 2009 in the Suntec Singapore International Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Expected to attract more than 13,000 delegates from all over the world, the FDI World Dental Congress will be one of the biggest the FDI has ever hosted.

The Executive Director of the FDI World Dental Federation, Dr. Pieter Idenburg, said today: “We are fully committed to attracting more than 13,000 delegates to attend the congress. This would raise the profile of the SDA considerably in both the international and regional arena.”

Prof. Teo Choo Soo, Organising Chairman, SDA, dedicated itself to organizing a congress of high international standing.

“FDI 2009 offers a prime platform to showcase Singapore’s expertise in dentistry and in leading medical and dental sciences,” said Mr. Aloysius Teo, Chairman, FDI Annual World Dental Congress, to be held in 2009 at the Suntec Singapore International Convention and Exhibition Centre.

“FDI 2009 will be an international name for itself as an international congress and a multitude of smaller specialized sessions. The venue, Suntec Singapore, is considered to be one of the most iconic in the world.”

The FDI World Dental Congress 2009 in Singapore is the world’s largest international congress dedicated to dental professionals and is one of the oldest charities.

The winning of the FDI Congress 2009 is seven more significant given the fact that this is the first time Singapore is bidding to host the world’s foremost dental event for the city-state that has welcomed the FDI Congress back in 1993. The new common bond is that the FDI will be held in Singapore’s Suntec City convention and exhibition center.

The FDI World Dental Congress 2009 in Singapore will host dental professionals from all over the world for the five days. The congress will be held from 27th to 31st October 2009.

The FDI World Dental Congress 2009 is one of the few mega events in the world that attracts more than 10,000 foreign delegates. The congress has a long history spanning back to 1953 and rotates its event location internationally.
