Increasing Case Acceptance?
Case presentation is probably one of the most difficult skills for any professional to master. Indeed, it is the key to increasing case acceptance. Learn how to improve your skills in this article by Dr. Roger Levin.

Preventing Emergencies?
The medical history, it's one of the most important components of the patient record. It plays a role in preventing emergencies. Brush up on the basics of the drugs commonly prescribed in the dental office with this article by Dr. Singhal.

What Does An Expert Say?
Join Dr. George Freedman (Canada) as he gives you a brief summary of products that have been introduced to dentistry. His perpective is based on actual use of the products in his private clinical practice over a period of time.

What's New in New Delhi?
Just visit one of the 145 exhibitors at the FDI World Dental Congress in New Delhi, India, from 10-15 September to answer that question. With a full 5-day scientific program, you certainly won't be short of new insight into the world of dentistry.