Pacific Dental Conference exhibit hall includes popular ‘Live Dentistry Stage’

More than 150 sessions and courses fill the March 5-7 event in downtown Vancouver

You can experience the true flavor of Canada’s West Coast — and earn C.E. credits at the same time — at the Pacific Dental Conference, March 5-7, in Vancouver, British Columbia.

The PDC has an expert lineup of local, North American and international speakers.

With more than 150 presenters, 150 open sessions and hands-on courses covering a variety of topics, the meeting should be able to offer something for every member of your dental team.

Some of dentistry’s top speakers

Here is a peek of just some of the presenters and topics on the agenda:

- Gordon Christensen – materials and techniques.

Two days of sessions on the ‘Live Dentistry Stage’ in the exhibit hall

The Live Dentistry Stage is back on the exhibit hall floor, with demonstrations throughout the day on Thursday and Friday, March 5 and 6.

At 11:30 a.m. on Thursday, Mark Kwon and Bernard Jin will present “Immediate Anterior Implant Solution Using Total-Digital-Technology,” co-sponsored by Hiossen Implant Canada Inc.

At 2:30 p.m., Glenn van As will present “Laser and Dental Implants,” co-sponsored by Hiossen Implant Canada Inc.

Explore Vancouver

At the conclusion of the conference, you can take a day to relax and revitalize by exploring some of Vancouver’s tourist attractions. The ocean is just steps from the Vancouver Convention Centre, and nearby snow-capped mountains offer up late-season skiing options.
